

42 C.F.R. § 136.121

Indian preference in training and employment.

- (a) Any grant made under this subpart, or a contract or subgrant made under such a grant shall require that, to the greatest extent feasible preferences and opportunities for training and employment in connection with the administration of such grant, or contract or subgrant made under such grant, shall be given to Indians.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login