

42 C.F.R. § 137.328

---

Must a construction project proposal incorporate provisions of Federal construction guidelines and manuals?

---

- (a) No, the Self-Governance Tribe and the Secretary must agree upon and specify appropriate building codes and architectural and engineering standards (including health and safety) which must be in conformity with nationally recognized standards for comparable projects.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login