

42 C.F.R. § 137.353

What is contained in a construction project financial report?

Construction project financial reports contain information regarding the amount of funds expended during the reporting period, and financial concerns of the Self-Governance Tribe, if any.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login