
42 C.F.R. § 137.364

What constitutes a significant change in the original scope of work?

A significant change in the original scope of work is:

- (a) A change that would result in a cost that exceeds the total of the project funds available and the Self-Governance Tribe's contingency funds; or

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login