

42 C.F.R. § 3.408

Factors considered in determining the amount of a civil money penalty.

In determining the amount of any civil money penalty, the Secretary may consider as aggravating or mitigating factors, as appropriate, any of the following:

- (a) The nature of the violation.
- (b) The circumstances, including the consequences, of the violation, including:
 - (1) The time period during which the violation(s) occurred; and

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login