

42 C.F.R. § 3.520

Subpoenas for attendance at hearing.

- (a) A party wishing to procure the appearance and testimony of any person at the hearing may make a motion requesting the ALJ to issue a subpoena if the appearance and testimony are reasonably necessary for the presentation of a party's case.
- (b) A subpoena requiring the attendance of a person in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section may also require the person (whether or not the person is a party) to produce relevant and material evidence at or before the hearing.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login