

42 C.F.R. § 403.222

State with an approved regulatory program.

- (a) A State has an approved regulatory program if the Panel determines that the State has in effect under State law a regulatory program that provides for the application of standards, with respect to each Medicare supplemental policy issued in that State, that are equal to or more stringent than those specified in section 1882 of the Social Security Act.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login