

42 C.F.R. § 412.618

Assessment process for interrupted stays.

For purposes of the patient assessment process, if any patient has an interrupted stay, as defined under § 412.602, the following applies:

- (a) Assessment requirements. (1) The initial case-mix group classification from the admission assessment remains in effect (that is, no new admission assessment is performed).

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login