

CEP Magazine – December 2019 Defending our recommendations

By Gerry Zack

Please feel free to contact me anytime to share your thoughts.

- +1 612.357.1544 (cell)
- +1 952.567.6215 (direct)
- gerry.zack@corporatecompliance.org

Credit for this month's column goes to Olga Pontes, chief compliance officer for Odebrecht, the Brazilian company at the center of the Operation Car Wash corruption scandal. In September I had the privilege of interviewing Olga during a general session at our 18th Annual Compliance & Ethics Institute. There were many highlights from the interview I could share, but there was one that stood out as being relevant to the position compliance professionals are often placed in.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login