

42 C.F.R. § 57.1510

Security for loans.

Each loan with respect to which a guarantee is made or interest subsidies are paid under this subpart shall be secured in a manner which the Secretary finds reasonably sufficient to insure repayment. The security may be one or a combination of the following:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login