

42 C.F.R. § 70.10

Public health prevention measures to detect communicable disease.

- (a) The Director may conduct public health prevention measures at U.S. airports, seaports, railway stations, bus terminals, and other locations where individuals may gather to engage in interstate travel, through non-invasive procedures determined appropriate by the Director to detect the presence of communicable diseases.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login