

42 C.F.R. § 70.7

Responsibility with respect to minors, wards, and patients.

A parent, guardian, physician, nurse, or other such person shall not transport, or procure or furnish transportation for any minor child or ward, patient or other such person who is in the communicable period of a communicable disease, except in accordance with provisions of this part.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login