

42 C.F.R. § 84.11

Contents of application.

- (a) Each application for approval shall contain a complete written description of the respirator for which approval is requested together with drawings and specifications (and lists thereof) showing full details of construction of the respirator and of the materials used.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login