

42 C.F.R. § 84.161

Man test for gases and vapors; Type B and Type BE respirators; test requirements.

- (a) The completely assembled respirator will be worn in a chamber containing 0.1 ± 0.025 percent isoamyl acetate vapor, and the intake of the hose, and not more than 25 percent of the hose length will be located in isoamyl acetate-free air.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login