

42 C.F.R. § 84.61

General construction requirements.

- (a) Respirators will not be accepted by the Institute for examination, inspection and testing unless they are designed on sound engineering and scientific principles, constructed of suitable materials and evidence good workmanship.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login