

42 C.F.R. § 93.507

Ex parte communications.

- (a) No party, attorney, or other party representative may communicate ex parte with the ALJ on any matter at issue in a case, unless both parties have notice and an opportunity to participate in the communication. However, a party, attorney, or other party representative may communicate with DAB staff about administrative or procedural matters.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login