

42 C.F.R. § 1008.33

Expert opinions from outside sources.

- (a) The OIG may request expert advice from qualified sources on non-legal issues if necessary to respond to the advisory opinion request. For example, the OIG may require the use of appropriate medical reviewers, such as quality improvement organizations, to obtain medical opinions on specific issues.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login