

42 C.F.R. § 423.1082

Evidence admissible on review.

- (a) The Departmental Appeals Board may admit evidence into the record in addition to the evidence introduced at the ALJ hearing, (or the documents considered by the ALJ if the hearing was waived), if the Board considers that the additional evidence is relevant and material to an issue before it.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login