

42 C.F.R. § 423.162

Quality improvement organization activities.

- (a) General rule. Quality improvement organizations (QIOs) are required to offer providers, practitioners, and Part D sponsors quality improvement assistance pertaining to health care services, including those related to prescription drug therapy, in accordance with contracts established with the Secretary.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login