

42 C.F.R. § 425.212

Changes to program requirements during the agreement period.

(a) An ACO is subject to all regulatory changes that become effective during the agreement period, with the exception of the following program areas, unless otherwise required by statute:

(1) Eligibility requirements concerning the structure and governance of ACOs.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login