Are we witnessing a sea change in attitudes toward close encounters of the wrong kind in the workplace? The very public resignations of senior politicians, business executives, and powerful men in the media have sparked a great debate. We applaud the courage of the women and men who are speaking out and saying, “Enough is enough.” At the same time, there is a feeling that a pendulum is swinging, and no one knows how far it will swing or where it will fly when it swings back, as these things inevitably do.
