

42 C.F.R. § 440.270

Religious objections.

- (a) Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, the agency may not require any individual to undergo any medical service, diagnosis, or treatment or to accept any other health service provided under the plan if the individual objects, or in the case of a child, a parent or guardian objects, on religious grounds.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login