

42 C.F.R. § 440.90

Clinic services.

Clinic services means preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative, or palliative services that are furnished by a facility that is not part of a hospital but is organized and operated to provide medical care to outpatients. The term includes the following services furnished to outpatients:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login