

42 C.F.R. § 455.14

Preliminary investigation.

If the agency receives a complaint of Medicaid fraud or abuse from any source or identifies any questionable practices, it must conduct a preliminary investigation to determine whether there is sufficient basis to warrant a full investigation.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login