

42 C.F.R. § 456.370

Medical, psychological, and social evaluations.

- (a) Before admission to an ICF or before authorization for payment, an interdisciplinary team of health professionals must make a comprehensive medical and social evaluation and, where appropriate, a psychological evaluation of each applicant's or beneficiary's need for care in the ICF.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login