

42 C.F.R. § 457.530

General cost-sharing protection for lower income children.

The State may vary premiums, deductibles, coinsurance, copayments or any other cost sharing based on household income only in a manner that does not favor children from families with higher income over children from families with lower income.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login