

42 C.F.R. § 485.603

Rural health network.

A rural health network is an organization that meets the following specifications:

(a) It includes—

- (1) At least one hospital that the State has designated or plans to designate as a CAH; and
- (2) At least one hospital that furnishes acute care services.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login