

42 C.F.R. § 485.729

Condition of participation: Program evaluation.

The organization has procedures that provide for a systematic evaluation of its total program to ensure appropriate utilization of services and to determine whether the organization's policies are followed in providing services to patients through employees or under arrangements with others.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login