

42 C.F.R. § 488.715

Partial extended surveys.

A partial extended survey is conducted to determine if standard or condition-level deficiencies are present in the conditions of participation not fully examined during the standard survey and there are indications that a more comprehensive review of conditions of participation would determine if a deficient practice exists.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login