

42 C.F.R. § 493.1232

Standard: Specimen identification and integrity.

The laboratory must establish and follow written policies and procedures that ensure positive identification and optimum integrity of a patient's specimen from the time of collection or receipt of the specimen through completion of testing and reporting of results.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login