

40 C.F.R. § 14.12

Principal types of unallowable claims.

---

Claims that ordinarily will not be allowed include:

- (a) Loss or damage totaling less than $25;
- (b) Money or currency, except when deposited with an authorized government agency for safekeeping;
- (c) Loss or damage to an item of extraordinary value or to an antique where the item was shipped with household goods, unless the employee filed a valid appraisal or authentication with the carrier prior to shipment of the item;
