

40 C.F.R. § 26.124

Conditions.

With respect to any research project or any class of research projects the department or agency head of either the conducting or the supporting Federal department or agency may impose additional conditions prior to or at the time of approval when in the judgment of the department or agency head additional conditions are necessary for the protection of human subjects.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login