40 C.F.R. § 29.10

How does the Administrator make efforts to accommodate intergovernmental concerns?

---

- (a) If a State process provides a State process recommendation to the Agency through the State's single point of contact, the Administrator either:
- (1) Accepts the recommendation;
  - (2) reaches a mutually agreeable solution with the State process; or
  - (3) Provides the single point of contact with such written explanation of the decision, as the Administrator, in his or her discretion, deems appropriate. The Administrator may also supplement the written explanation by providing the explanation to the single point of contact by telephone, other telecommunication, or other means.
