

Leveraging Data to Improve Your compliance Program

Beth Davis, Assistant General Counsel, Asurion. Michelle Balaklaw, Staff Counsel, Asurion.

June 18, 2021

- Data can be utilized by legal teams to identify educational opportunities, hone in on hotline reporting trends by department and region, and demonstrate program success when presenting to leadership
- Leveraging analytics also allows for the automation of work processes enabling you to work smarter, not harder
- Embracing data allows legal teams to better communicate with other business functions, thus enabling you to be a better business partner and better advocate for your compliance program

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase