

Preparing for and Responding to Payor Audits during and post-COVID

Courtney Tito, Member, McDonald Hopkins.

June 22, 2021

- Presentation will help participants better understand the payor audit process and prepare the organization to respond from the initial communications
- Presentation will take participants through the payor audit process from a government perspective and compare and contrast typical government audits with typical commercial audits
- Presentation will examine COVID-19 considerations and enforcement related to payor audits
- Presentation will identify best practices and other important obligations

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase