

Building Cross-Functional Partnerships (August 2021) Building Cross-Functional Partnerships (August 2021)

Lauren Connell, Associate General Counsel Risk, Compliance & Integrity, Nielsen.

2021-08-04

- Understand how building cross-functional partnerships allows compliance departments to identify win-win goals with other departments and achieve more with less
- Focus on specific, discrete areas where department goals overlap
- Identify common goals that create shared interests to leverage limited time and resources to achieve them
- Use the additional work you are able to accomplish with cross-functional coordination to make the case that money in the compliance budget is well spent and decreases risk across the organization

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase