

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 2. January 23, 2020

China's 'Queen of Trash' invests in US

By Sascha Matuszak

Following China's import ban on waste that doesn't meet strict contamination requirements, paper and waste recycling businesses across the globe felt a shock. Part of the response has been the expansion of China-based recycling companies into the global marketplace, as opposed to merely purchasers of waste at the borders.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login