

CEP Magazine – November 2021 Prioritizing among the many ESG issues

---

By Gerry Zack

Please feel free to contact me anytime to share your thoughts: +1 612.357.1544 (cell), +1 952.567.6215 (direct), gerry.zack@corporatecompliance.org.

- twitter.com/gerry\_zack
- linkedin.com/in/gerryzack

Deciding among the multitude of possible environmental, social, and governance (ESG) issues to focus on can be the ultimate balancing act, particularly when it comes to environmental and social issues. The list of possible concerns is a lengthy one. Regardless of which priorities the organization opts to address, some people will be pleased while others may be furious.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login