

CEP Magazine – March 2022 ESG and the supply chain connection

By Lisa Beth Lentini Walker

Lisa Beth Lentini Walker (lisabeth@lumen-we.com) is the CEO of Lumen Worldwide Endeavors in Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA.

Supply chains offer great opportunity and potentially great liability. We know from a multitude of studies that almost 90% of bribery and corruption cases prosecuted in the US involve third parties.^[1] Supply chain partners have also been involved in significant data breaches and privacy impacts, with the Ponemon Institute reporting in 2021 that more than 51% of institutions suffered a breach caused by a third party.^[2]

Lisa Beth Lentini
Walker

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login