

CEP Magazine – March 2020

The 'pit stop' approach: Strategically improving efficiency and achieving goals

By Walter E. Johnson, CCEP, CCEP-I, CHC, CHPC

Walter E. Johnson (walter.johnson@inova.org) is Assistant Privacy Officer at Inova in Falls Church, Virginia, USA, and Adjunct Professor of Business Ethics at University of Maryland Global Campus (UMGC).

As we conclude the first quarter of the new decade, it's a time to reflect and make necessary adjustments to achieve compliance program objectives as well as personal goals. Many organizations are evaluating whether revenue is meeting, exceeding, or falling short of targets. If the latter, making adjustments becomes an organizational priority. Likewise, this is an opportunity for compliance officers along with compliance committees to evaluate the work plan and adjust risk priorities, if necessary.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login