

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 5. March 05, 2020

Irish Data Protection Commission conducts dawn raid to learn more about Facebook's pending dating service

By Sascha Matuszak

On Feb. 3, Facebook Inc. informed the Irish Data Protection Commission (DPC) that it would be rolling out a new dating service Feb. 14. The DPC was concerned about lack of information regarding the service and the fact that Facebook had not conducted a data protection impact assessment in order to assess any risks.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login