

Healthcare Compliance Forms and Tools Sample Checklist for Assessing Investigation Capabilities

By Virginia MacSuibhne and Meric Craig Bloch

Personnel (select one)	Level of Experience (select one)	Subject Matter Expertise (select all that apply)
<ul> <li>Human Resources</li> <li>Employee Relations</li> <li>Security</li> <li>Auditors</li> <li>Legal</li> <li>Ethics and Compliance</li> <li>Forensics/IT</li> <li>Persons responsible for corporate travel and expenses</li> <li>Safety/Occupational Health</li> <li>Other</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>None</li> <li>Conducted 1-5         investigations in the         past year</li> <li>Conducted 5-10         investigations in the         past year</li> <li>Conducted more than 10         investigations in the         past year</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Harassment</li> <li>Discrimination</li> <li>Retaliation</li> <li>General employee misconduct</li> <li>Safety violation</li> <li>Theft (company or employee property, improper use of company credit card, theft of confidential information or trade secrets)</li> <li>Violence or threats of violence</li> <li>Books and records irregularities</li> <li>Wage and hour matters</li> <li>Policy or standard operating procedure violations</li> <li>Retaliation</li> <li>Conflicts of interest</li> <li>Bribery/corruption, including Foreign Corrupt Practices Act</li> <li>Fraud and abuse</li> <li>Website hacking or other external threat</li> <li>Substance abuse</li> <li>Other misconduct</li> </ul>

This document is only available to subscribers. Please  $\log$  in or purchase access.

Purchase Login