

Report on Medicare Compliance Volume 31, Number 28. August 08, 2022

News Briefs: Aug. 8, 2022

By Nina Youngstrom

◆ HHS on July 25 finalized its repeal of rules on Good Guidance Practices (GGP) and fairness in enforcement.^[1] In a nutshell, the GGP and enforcement regulations, which were published in the waning days of the Trump administration, required HHS to put “significant” guidance through notice and comment rulemaking and limited the use of subregulatory guidance in administrative enforcement actions.^[2]

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login