

Report on Medicare Compliance Volume 31, Number 33. September 12, 2022

OIG: Seven Measures of Telehealth Billing That May Indicate Medicare Fraud or Abuse

By Nina Youngstrom

In a new data brief, the HHS Office of Inspector General (OIG) identifies the program integrity risks in telehealth services during the first year of the COVID-19 public health emergency.^[1]

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login