

29 C.F.R. § 1989.115

Special circumstances; waiver of rules.

In special circumstances not contemplated by the provisions of these rules, or for good cause shown, the ALJ or the ARB on review may, upon application, and after three days' notice to all parties, waive any rule or issue such orders that justice or the administration of TFA requires.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login