Well, this column is titled “Exhale.” This is something we need to do now more than ever.

I was already planning on writing about compliance officers being ready to change priorities before the coronavirus hit, but it takes on a whole new meaning now. It’s really hard to get my head around what is happening as I write this article. I cannot imagine what it will be like when you are actually reading this article in June. Right now, things are changing so fast in each state. Schools are closed. Bars and restaurants (other than drive-through lanes) are closed. In Wisconsin, where I live, coronavirus cases more than doubled overnight twice, first going from 46 to 106, then to 216.
