

Compliance Today – June 2020 United States Department of Justice addresses antitrust issues during COVID-19

By Sascha Matuszak

The coronavirus epidemic is forcing organizations, especially those in the healthcare field, to collaborate in ways that could violate US antitrust regulations. To head off any violations before they can happen, and to clarify existing and ongoing regulations, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Bureau of Competition of the Federal Trade Commission issued a joint statement^[1] on the matter.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login