

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 12. June 11, 2020

Minnesota bans toxic chemical TCE

---

The state of Minnesota passed a bill banning the chemical Trichloroethylene<sup>[1]</sup> (TCE) following an investigation into a wastewater management company, Water Gremlin, that polluted the environment with lead, TCE and poorly filtered used oil.<sup>[2]</sup> The pollutants caused locals to experience increased cancer rates, which led to the township raising awareness about TCE contamination in their community.<sup>[3]</sup>

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login