

HCCA04 Auditing Compliance and Ethics at the Speed of Business

Ryan Willhite, Director of Internal Audit, UnityPoint Health.

2023-09-06

- The COVID-19 pandemic and its aftermath have dramatically increased the speed with which compliance and ethics risks take root across all industries
- This elevated risk environment requires an auditing mindset and approach that is just as adaptive and resilient as business operations
- A resilient auditing approach and actual case study will be introduced that can help continuously assess what to audit and when

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase