

105 False Claims Act Risk and the RADV Final Rule

Christine Worthen, Esq..

Gabriel Imperato , Managing Partner , Nelson Mullins.

2024-01-29

- Discuss False Claims Act liability for health plans in connection with risk adjustment practices and reimbursement from federal health programs
- The basis for "risk adjustment" liability and the compliance implications of the recent RADV rule and the development of health plan provider networks and correct coding initiatives
- The anatomy of a False Claims Act case and managing the compliance risk for health plans, including liability for "risk adjustment" and claims to federal health programs
- Review of the RADV Final Rule and best practices and strategies for compliance and alignment with business objectives

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase